

Bio - Robert Borgognoni

Robert has been a real estate broker and appraiser since 1983 beginning his professional career in San Diego before relocating to Northern California in 1985. He has combined both lending and private practice experience in shaping his career as a commercial appraiser and reviewer. Robert is a Certified General Appraiser. Most recently he has been employed as a Sr. Commercial Appraiser for a community bank and as a Commercial Review Appraiser for a national lender. Robert is a Board Member of the Real Estate Appraisers Association – North Bay Chapter where he serves as co-chairperson of the Education Committee. With the support of REAA-NB, he organized an annual scholarship fund to assist members with their education and professional development needs. His commitment to real estate education combined with his diverse appraisal experience allowed him to pursue a second career as a college instructor at Santa Rosa Jr. College in 2001. He originally began as a classroom instructor for residential and commercial appraisal courses progressing to create two online courses at SRJC. In addition, Robert has taught at the College of Marin and continues to develop and instruct continuing education classes.
